GRANT AND PORTER.

The Lattor's First Meeting With His Subsequent Chief.

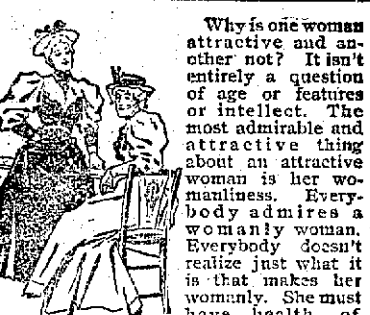

While sitting in my quarters in the little town of Chattanooga about an hour after nightfall on the evening of Friday, Oct. 23, 1863, an orderly brought me a message from General George H. Thomas, commander of the Army of the Cumberland, on whose staff I was serving, summoning me to headquarters. A storm had been raging for two days, and a chilling rain was still falling. A few minutes' walk brought me to the plain wooden, one-story dwelling occupied by the commander, which was situated on Walnut street, near Fourth, and upon my arrival I found him in the front room on the left side of the hall, with three members of his staff and several strange officers.

In an armchair facing the fireplace was seated a general officer, slight in figure and of medium stature, whose face bore an expression of weariness. He was carefully dressed, and his uniform coat was unbuttoned and thrown back from his chest. He held a lighted cigar in his mouth and sat in a stooping posture, with his head bent slightly forward. His clothes were wet, and his trousers and topboots were splattered with mud. General Thomas approached this officer, and, turning to me and mentioning me by name, said, "I want to present you to General Grant."

Thereupon the officer seated in the chair, without changing his position, glanced up, extended his arm to its full length, shook hands and said in a low voice and speaking slowly, "How do you do?" This was my first meeting with the man with whom I was destined afterward to spend so many of the most interesting years of my life.

The strange officers present were members of General Grant's staff. Charles A. Dana, assistant secretary of war, who had been for some time with the Army of the Cumberland, had also entered the room. The next morning, he sent a dispatch to the war department, beginning with the words, "Grant arrived last night, wet, dirty and well."

"Campaigning With Grant," by General Horace Porter, in Century.

Why is one woman attractive and another not? It isn't entirely a question of age or features or intellect. The most admirable and attractive thing about an attractive woman is her womanliness. Everybody admires a womanly woman. Everybody doesn't realize just what it is that makes her womanly. She must have health, of course, because without it she would lose the brightness of her eyes, the fullness of her cheeks and her vivacity. Health brings all these things but health means more than most people think of. Real health must mean that a woman is really a woman. That she is strong and perfect in a sexual way, as well as in every other. That she is capable of performing perfectly the duties of maternity. Upon her strength in this way depends to a large extent her general health, her good looks and her attractiveness. Some women are born stronger than others. Some are born with what is called "constitutional weakness." It is easier for some women to retain health and strength than it is for others. Some seem able to do anything they like, whenever they like, without serious results. Still, there is no reason why women should not enjoy perfect health. Those who do not, need only take the proper precautions and the proper remedy to become perfectly well and strong. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure any derangement of the distinctly feminine organism. It is absolutely certain. There are some who have neglected themselves so long that a complete cure is next to impossible, but even these will find comfort and improved health in the use of the "Favorite Prescription." It has cured hundreds of women who have received no relief what-so-ever from years of treatment with good physicians. It is absolutely unique in the history of medicine. Such a remedy can be discovered only once. There is nothing in the world like it, nor has there ever been. Hundreds of times that every woman ought to know, are contained in Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, which will be sent absolutely free on receipt of one-cent stamp to cover cost of mailing only. THAT WAVE OF PROSPERITY.

It is charged by the gold press that the advocates of bimetalism attempt to make it appear that prosperity does not smile on the United States since the election of McKinley. If the country is really prosperous and the condition of the masses of the people has improved since the election the fact cannot be denied or concealed as it will make itself apparent whatever may be said to the contrary. The Western Rural, a newspaper published in Chicago by General C. H. Howard, in its issue of November 26, 1896, has this to say of the "wave of prosperity" in that city and in other manufacturing centers:

"We are credibly informed that between twenty and thirty thousand people have flocked into Chicago since the election in the vain hope of getting work. They were induced to do so by the lying statements of the goldite papers, to justify their claims that all that was lacking to bring prosperity was confidence. They claimed that if the gold standard won the mills throughout the country would immediately reopen, employment be given to labor and business would resume its anti-panic, old-time activity. To justify their prediction and fool the people further, immediately after the election the papers East and West, as if by common agreement, began publishing false statements in regard to opening mills, business activity and increased demand for labor.

"We wish to say to any of our readers and others who may contemplate coming to this city or going to any manufacturing center in the hope of finding employment, that these statements of increased demand for labor are false. They are manufactured in the newspaper offices. There have been more men discharged than employed in Chicago since the election, and we think this is true in most other manufacturing points.

"Manufacturers have themselves in many instances been deceived through a lack of knowledge of the principle of finance which is responsible for the prevailing stagnation. The election has changed no economic law. The great and inviolable law, that a diminishing quantity of standard money causes falling prices, staggers business, closes mills and factories, paralyzes commerce, lowers wages, throws the wage-earner out of employment and thus brings poverty and misery to the producing classes, has not been changed by the election, and will have to be recognized before we can have permanent prosperity.

"The only hopeful feature in the outlook is the rise in the price of wheat. This is due to the failure of the crop in India and a short crop in Russia, and is in no way the result of the election.

"If the principle of bimetalism had won in this election, instead of gold monometallism, higher prices for all farm products would have been insured. This would have opened the mills to supply an active demand, which would have been created by the ability of the farmers to buy.

"The old rule still holds good, that permanent prosperity has its roots in the soil. When the farmers prosper all prosper."

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

Our legislative representatives request the public to meet at the courthouse next Saturday evening for the purpose of discussing municipal matters voted upon at the recent election. As these matters are of great importance not only to taxpayers, but to every resident of Reno, there should be a general attendance and a full and free expression of opinion on every question involved. If we can secure better government at no greater expense by incorporating we should do it by all means. If we can get purer water for domestic purposes for what we are now paying, then we should get it, or prevail upon the present water company to get it for us. Health and protection to life and property are the first and great considerations, and the expense of securing them, though important, is a secondary consideration. Let the people meet and discuss those matters.

IOWA FEELS THE DEPRESSION.

The State of Iowa, like the general government, is feeling the business depression. It has a deficit of $500,000 which will probably reach a million at the time the Legislature meets. Members of the Legislature are conferring with the State officers and the result is that an earnest effort will be made when the Legislature meets in special session in January to revise the revenue laws. It is alleged that the present system of taxation is so inequitable that some counties pay twice as much tax per acre as others although the market value of the land is the same.

It is probable that the Legislature will authorize a bond issue to get money to pay the expenses of the State government until the revenue laws are amended so that taxes will be sufficient to meet expenditures.

The trial of Herr Leikert, Baron Von Lutzow and other journalists at Berlin on a charge of libel is causing a sensation, as it is expected to disclose the workings of a clique which dominates the Government.

SHARKEY WINS ON A FOUL.

Result of the Big Fight in San Francisco.

THE DECISION DENOUNCED.

Fitzsimmons Had the Best of the Mill Throughout, Punishing Sharkey at His Will.

Special to the JOURNAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 2.—Bob Fitzsimmons was robbed of a victory to-night which he clearly earned by punching Tom Sharkey into insensibility. No one saw the foul complained of, but all saw Sharkey strike the Australian in the clinches and wrestle him all over the ring a score of times. The call of time saved the sailor at the end of four rounds and the referee finally saved him in the eighth after Fitzsimmons had laid him low with a couple of left hooks, both of which struck the jaw. Fitz finished without a mark on his body and did not receive a single fair punch from the sailor in the entire contest. As Sharkey rolled over on his back Wyatt Earp, the referee, announced that Fitzsimmons had struck him a foul with his knee and that the decision should go to Sharkey. The decision was received with hoots and jeers and Earp disappeared just in time to avoid rough handling.

The first round ended with Fitzsimmons sending Sharkey to earth by a blow on the jaw.

In the second Tom received another on the jaw.

In the third round clinches followed in rapid succession, Sharkey striking foul but not hitting. Sharkey was cautioned about fouling.

In the fourth Fitzsimmons slipped and fell. Sharkey rushed viciously but got two more on the jaw and one over the heart. Both received punishment and Sharkey's left eye was closed.

In the fifth Sharkey clinched and threw Fitzsimmons. In the break-away a hard left sent Sharkey to the ropes after he had again tried to land a foul. Fitzsimmons landed two more blows and Sharkey went to the ropes.

In the sixth Sharkey was not so lively, but clinched continually and lifted Fitz from the floor. Sharkey again fouled, which angered Fitz, who then landed several. Sharkey was badly hurt when the gong sounded.

In the seventh Sharkey was slow, striking foul in the clinch. The crowd yelled "Foul."

In the eighth Sharkey was only wrestling. Fitzsimmons landed many blows, and at last got in his famous left hook twice, which landed the sailor on his back with his left leg in the air. Fitzsimmons smiled and turned to his corner. Sharkey was carried out. The victor was spry and scarcely scratched.

Wyatt Earp, the Arizona sportsman, was chosen referee by the National Club on Monday noon. The articles of agreement provided that if no referee was mutually agreed upon by that time the club should make the appointment. The contestants wrangled over the selection of that official until Monday but every name proposed by one side met with objections from the other, so the club named Earp.

The betting was brisk to-day. On ten rounds the odds were 20 to 9 in favor of Fitz. On his winning in six rounds, even money.

CHIPPewa FALLS.

Business Suspended and Many Buildings Flooded to the Second Story.

MILWAUKEE, December 2.—A special to the Evening Wisconsin from Chippewa Falls, Wis., says that confusion reigns in Chippewa Falls to-day. The thoroughly alarmed people are making every effort to leave as little for the incoming waters to destroy as they possibly can. Two hundred teams and drays have rushed hither and thither all day, and the streets are littered with merchandise. The water remained stationary until about 3 o'clock this morning, and then began rising rapidly; and inside of four hours an additional rise of 18 inches has been registered. The river at 10 o'clock is 24 feet high and rising. Business is abandoned, and the city is in a state of tumult, with thousands of people who are anxiously waiting in groups of fifty or more excitedly discussing the situation on every corner. All the buildings on river streets are to-day flooded to the second story. The ice is threatening the foundations of the freight depots, and all buildings near the river. The gorge at the dam eighteen miles above Chippewa Falls has broken, and a rush of water is expected to inundate the entire town. Fifty of the largest business firms have abandoned their buildings entirely, and every resident is prepared for flight if the expected flood increases.

John Abel, employed at the Nelson Morris Dressed Beef Works at St. Louis, slipped on a greasy floor and fell into a vat of boiling grease. He was horribly burned and the flesh on his right leg was parboiled.

PRESIDENT DIAZ.

He is Inaugurated the Fifth Time. City of Mexico, December 2.—President Diaz took the oath of office the fifth time as Chief Magistrate in the presence of a great assemblage. He will go to Europe next year. All the Cabinet Ministers who resigned to leave Diaz free to name their successors have been requested to retain their portfolios.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are due to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy where catenamed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

What a White Pine Miner Says of the Situation.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—As our great leader has met a temporary defeat, it becomes necessary for every true friend of silver, and particularly the younger advocates of the restoration of that metal to its rightful place as money, to fight, both with tongue and pen, until we batter down the fortification of lies built by John Sherman and other English satellites, and hold by foreign gold, and the only missiles we need employ in the warfare is truth.

With this end solely in view, Mr. Editor, I hope you will publish these few lines.

If the Republican party is the party of honesty, why has it for the past thirty years encouraged people to build homes in silver mining regions? and why do they now, after our fathers have spent the best part of their lives in developing the mines and accumulating property, depending on the mines to give it a value, abandon them to the tender mercy of foreign nations, and brand us all as dishonest advocates of dishonest money?

If some of those disciples would use a one-thousandth part of the muscles and candles I have expended in hunting for a deposit of silver they would conclude that it ought to be worth more than $1.29 per ounce.

Being a young man, and consequently one of the beneficiaries of the legacy of hard times bequeathed to us by the folly of our forefathers in blindly accepting every act which bore the stamp of Republican approval, as did the "crime of '73"—though they claim they know not what they were doing—and realizing that we can expect no help from the party which grants protection to the East, but waits for England, our great enemy, to grant protection to the West, I opine that we, the young men of this country, had better begin to think of shifting the shackles.

No matter what anyone may think of English deceptions mixed for the foreign taste he cannot but agree that did she own our silver producing territory, she would restore silver to its proper place as a money metal, without asking the consent or inviting the co-operation of any other power. Down in their hearts I think every goldbug in this country knows that.

I am sure that if the young men of this country would read the true history of the demonetization of silver they would have a great contempt if not enmity for some of the foremost Republicans in this nation to-day. They would rally round the banner of W. J. Bryan and the regenerated Democracy, and shout for new men, new parties and new methods.

If this is not the decision in 1900, then I say let us immigrate to some British possession in order to get the protection as well as the ruling of the crown.

If any young fellow don't know what is hurting him, I will undertake to diagnose his case, so he can be alive and kicking in 1900. FRANK PAUL, Ely, Nev., November 20, 1896.

MUNICIPAL QUESTIONS.

District Court.

In the District Court yesterday Geo. H. Foulks, attorney for the estate of J. P. Foulks, deceased, asked that a detailed statement be rendered of the business of the late firm of Foulks & Powning in order that a correct accounting be made of the business. The Court granted the request and ordered that C. O. Powning, the surviving partner in the business, file such statement within twenty days. At the afternoon session the case of Sumnerfield & Torreyson vs. John D. Foley was submitted upon a statement of facts and the case taken under advisement.

The case of John Barrett vs. the Southern Pacific R. R. Co., for damages sustained by Barrett's son while climbing across a train, will be heard to-day.

Mrs. M. C. Lake, as guardian for Myron C. Lake, filed her final report and was discharged and the bondsman released. Myron (Chas.) Lake, having reached his majority, now takes the entire management of his interests.

Stop It.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—The reservoir from which the town is supplied with water for domestic purposes is being used as a skating rink. People expectorate on the ice and it is possible that disease is communicated to those who use the water, for when the ice melts, all the filth which accumulates on the ice mixes with and pollutes the water. Surely this can be prevented and it would seem to be the duty of the water company, or the Board of Health, to prevent it.

B'NAI B'RITH RECEPTION.

Entertainment and Banquet Given in Honor of the Grand President.

A reception and banquet was given in honor of Grand President I. Wolf after the regular meeting of the local lodge of B'nei Brith last evening, attended by the families and friends of the order to the number of about fifty.

The following musical program was rendered: Duet by Misses Flo and Dora Abrahams; declamation, Ed. Lachman; violin and piano duet, Misses Jessie and Della Levy; piano solo, Miss Jennie Lachman; recitation, Jake Morris; vocal duet, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Jacobs; piano solo, Miss Florence Abrahams; piano duet, Misses Jennie Lachman and Jennie Coleman.

Grand President I. Wolf then gave the address of the evening. Mr. Wolfe said he did not intend tiring the audience with a dry address. He spoke of the history, growth and purpose of the B'nei Brith order impressing upon the people the great benefits derived from the order. It has founded in the last twenty years, libraries, orphan asylums, technical schools, homes for the aged and infirm, and supported by the order. It was through the influence of this order that the persecutions of the Jews of Roumania and Russia were stopped, and also through their influence that Congress passed a resolution denouncing the persecution of the Jews in Russia.

Mr. Wolfe is a very pleasant speaker and his speech left very favorable ideas on the minds of our Jewish residents. After Mr. Wolfe delivered his address all repaired to the banquet room where eatables and delicacies of all descriptions were in store for all.

PENSIONERS.

The Amount Paid by the Government to Disabled Soldiers and Sailors.

In reply to a correspondent who asks "What is the amount paid for pensions up to 1896?" The St. Louis Republic says:

"The history of the nations of the earth do not show a case where those who fought for and helped to save the government were treated with such liberality as has been displayed towards the veterans of the civil war. The number of pensioners on the roll in 1895 was 370,524, while between 1891 and 1895 no less than 1,436,191 persons, soldiers, sailors and their widows and orphans, received more or less of the bounty of the government. The total number of claims presented between 1891 and 1895 was 2,111,823, while the enormous sum of $1,858,235,077 has been disbursed by the Pension Office to claimants for the Government's bounty in this direction. The annual payments of pensions have varied from $700,384 in 1892 to $128,155,342 in 1895. The payments last year amounted to $140,959,361."

Justice Court.

Bates and Cook, the two men arrested by Constable McInnis, charged with burglarizing Hodgkinson's drug store last Sunday night, had a hearing in the Justice Court yesterday afternoon. Considerable evidence for the prosecution was introduced, and at the request of Cook, one of the defendants, the case was continued until Saturday at 2 p. m. to allow him time to secure witnesses who are out of town.

THE LEGISLATURE.

It is said that there are several hundred applicants for positions in the Legislature. There are hundreds of persons who believe they are competent to perform the duties of clerks and attaches that cannot find lucrative employment, and they seek legislative positions.

If the members of the Legislature desire to represent the wishes of their constituents they will enact whatever laws may be necessary and adjourn. There is no apparent reason why the Legislature should not finish its business in thirty days from the time it meets. The revenue of the State is derived from taxation, and in these times the people cannot stand extravagance. It is difficult for the majority of taxpayers to get money to pay their taxes, and spread eagle orators should rid themselves of surplus gas in some other way than keeping the Legislature in session at an expense of about a thousand dollars a day.

Members who have pet measures should introduce them at once and the few general laws that may be necessary ought to be enacted in a few weeks at most. The incoming Legislature should limit the session to thirty days. Probably there are people who would object to such action as they do all popular measures, but the majority of those who are taxed to pay the expenses will certainly approve it. There is no good reason for expending $35,000 or $40,000 every two years for the enactment of laws for a State of 40,000 inhabitants.

A handsome bell for the church at Paradise arrived from the Buckeye Bell Foundry at Cincinnati yesterday. On the bell is engraved the following, which tells its own story: "Presented to the Paradise Valley M. E. Church by J. P. Jones, U. S. Senator for Nevada, 1896."—Silver State.

Resolutions were adopted at a meeting of 3,000 strikers at Hamburg accepting the proposition of the Chief of Police, President of the Municipal Council and Chairman of the Trades Court to submit the dispute of the dockers and employers to a board of arbitration. The Employers' Union rejected the proposition by unanimous vote.

The Board of Health of San Francisco discovered that diphtheria was prevalent in the city and ordered three of the public schools closed until their sanitary condition was improved. St. Francis School, a private institution, was treated in a similar manner. The Board of Education decided that the schools were all right and should not be closed. The Board of Health painted red diphtheria notices on the buildings and had half a dozen deputies at each to prevent them from being opened. None of the children were allowed to enter and School Director Henderson, who tore down one of the diphtheria signs, was arrested. The children were smuggled into the St. Francis School and went on with their studies as usual.

Diphtheria Cure.

The testimony of a prominent physician: FOUNTAIN CITY, Ind., June 17, 1895. This certifies that I have been using V. O. in my practice. I have never found any medical preparation in 46 years of practice that is calculated to do so much good in so wide a range of diseases and leave no after bad effects. In Diphtheria it has proved a perfect specific in my hands, and I had rather depend on it alone in that dreadful disease than the whole popular Materia Medica with that left out.

Chas. B. Hood, Broker and Manufacturer Agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a cough remedy. J. D. Brown, proprietor of St. James Hotel, Fort Wayne, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a cough of two years standing, caused by La Grippe, by Dr. King's New Discovery. B. F. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail, and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures.
